

Delegation of permanent delegates in UN from 5 countries with diplomatic relations visited Ministry of Justice on November 28, 2016

On November 28, 2016, a delegation of permanent delegates in United Nations from 5 countries with diplomatic relations, Republic of Paraguay, Haiti, Kingdom of Swaziland, Republic of Guatemala and Republic of Honduras, visited Ministry of Justice and exchanged views on wide range of human right issues, the incorporation of international human right treaties with domestic legal system, human right education, review of laws and regulations and the upcoming review meeting of ROC's second state report on ICCPR and ICESCR. There were a total of 11 people participated in this event.

